Foundation Course Intermediate Course Full/Advanced Course

*At the present time, only intermediate and full licence holders may apply to become registered assessors. Full licence holders can assess the practical exercises at all levels. Intermediate licence holders are restricted to Foundation assessments only.

It is also acknowledged that, members of the recognised youth organisations and schoolteachers may also wish to become registered assessors. In these cases, the requirement to hold an amateur licence is waived, however the following rules apply: -

- Suitability of applicants via this route is at the discretion of the Regional Signals Officer for the ATC and CCF, Head Teacher for schools, and in the case of Scouts and Guides, a Senior Official within these organisations.
- Applicants must provide a letter of support from within their respective recognised organisation, which must be sent to the RSGB, together with pages 1 and 2 of the Instructor Application form.
- If your application is via this route you are not permitted to teach any courses outside of your recognised organisation/school.

Details of two referees please remember that they must not be related to your self.
